CALL FOR ARTISTS

THE ART OF WAR IS ABOUT TO GET LITERAL

Consider this your call to arms. The lines are being drawn. The battle is back on.

WAR OF THE WALLS returns in December 2011 on the heels of last year's highly successful inaugural battle. We're calling all aerosol graffers and urban artists out of the alleys and studios and into an underground clash of the cans. We're looking for up to 5 artists to go head to head in a duel of genius and talents and a race against the clock.

Wanna win the battle and win the war? Register your interest in being one of our 5 adversary artists. Simply go to our website, www.warofthewalls.com, and apply to join the ranks.

This means War.
